

No stylist? Small budget? Sew what!

Looking fashionable can be both easy and affordable. Transform old clothing into stylish pieces in minutes. You don't have to have the sewing skills of a fashion designer. All you need is a budget-minded creative streak and a quality, Swedish-made sewing machine like the Husqvarna Viking Scandinavia 100. It has just the right stitches, convenient settings and simple functions. Plus, its price tag makes your thrift store finds even more stylish.

For free instructions to make the scarf, recycled jean skirt, Capri jeans and shirt pictured here, visit www.husqvarnaviking.com.

Cut, zigzag, fray—it's that simple to recycle old jeans into a skirt.

A $10 ball of yarn can be turned into a fun, functional scarf with a few straight stitches.
