Quilting Arts TV

Dear Sewing and Quilting Friends,
I'm "sew" excited to tell you about the newest television series, Quilting Arts, designed especially for quilters, sewers, and crafters. Quilting Arts will begin airing on Public Television Stations (PBS) January 6, 2008.

This new Quilting Arts series is hosted by Patricia "Pokey" Bolton, Editor of Quilting Arts Magazine and underwritten by Husqvarna Viking. On each program I present a 5 minute segment called America Quilts with Sue Hausmann. In this first series, Quilting Arts 100, we create a beautiful Quilted Wall Hanging designed by Marie Duncan. Each program teaches a special quilting/machine arts technique. They include: Program 101 Free Motion and Sketch Art, 102 Easy Half Square Triangles, 103 Trapunto Quilting, 104 Stitch Embellished Sashing, 105 Free Motion Raw Edge Appliqué, 106 Satin Stitch Appliqué, 107 Embroidered Quilt Blocks, 108 Hand Look Appliqué, 109 Redwork Style Quilted Design, 110 Perfect Piping Frames, 111 Endless Borders, 112 Machine Quilting and Quilt Labels, 113 Binding.

There are four original embroidery designs and additional projects and tips and techniques. Complete instructions will be available in January 2008 on www.quiltingartstv.com More information and Quilting Arts projects coming soon on www.husqvarnaviking.com

Be sure to contact your local Public Television Station and ask them to air Quilting Arts! Call, write or go to www.PBS.org and locate the contact information to send an e-mail to your station.

Happy Quilting and Happy Sewing!
